ROCK 'N' ROLL
KIDS

I remember '62, I was sixteen and so were you and we lived next door on the avenue.

Jerry Lee was big and Elvis too
blue jeans and blue suede shoes,
and we never knew what life held in store.
We just wanted to rock 'n' roll forever more

(2, 3, 4, 1, 2, 3, 4)

(1) We were the rock 'n' roll kids (4,1)

Rock 'n' roll ~ was all we did

And listenin' to those songs

on the ra ~ dee-e-o (2, 3, 4, 1, 2, 3, 4)

(1) I was yours and you were mine (4,1)

That was once // upon a time

Now we never seem to rock 'n' roll anymore.

Now Johnny's in love with the girl next door
and Mary's down at the record store, they don't wanna be // around us no more.

Golden Oldies, but we hardly speak, too busy running to a diff'rent beat
Hard to understand // we were once like that
How I wish we could find those rock 'n' roll days again

(1) We were the rock 'n' roll kids (4,1)

Rock 'n' roll was all we did

And listenin' to those songs

on the ra ~ dee-e-o (2, 3, 4, 1, 2, 3, 4)

(1) I was yours and you were mine 4,1)

That was once // upon a time

Now we never seem to rock 'n' roll anymore

I was yours and YOU-oo were mine

That was once upon a time

Now we never seem to rock 'n' roll

(short instrumental)

We just never seem to rock 'n' roll }

anymore
